Principal Briggs: We had a virtual learning meeting with families so they can be prepared in case we have to go virtual. We have also sent out the virtual music concert link to parents.

Principal Voss: Really glad to have as normal of a year as we have been having.

Superintendent Busch: There are changes to the Restraint & Seclusion Code becoming effective on January 20, 2021. IASB is working on policy & procedure changes. AEA learning online is developing staff learning modules. Plan to have the paperwork completed on the vans for student transportation the first part of January. Due to the numbers in special education, we are able to expand the pilot trail of IXL to some secondary students. This year's lowa Superintendents Finance & Leadership Conference was held virtually on December 16-17th. I attended the Leadership Camp/Evaluator section. We explored the new standards & how to keep this focused in our work. We've been working with Larry from ISFIS on our Finance Project tool. Due to enrollment numbers in grades 9th-11th, we expect to be assigned to an 8-man football district.

Director Kirby: I am very appreciative to be having the school year we are having. Thank you to the administration for everything you've done. Thank you to Carston, Christina, & Kari for making the concerts happen & for all the time & effort.

Director Hoeger: My son saw some of the Library plans and really liked the layout of the new remodel.

Director Schilling: Thank you to the staff for being able to maintain during these times.

Director Elliot: We've come a long way & I'm glad to see we are this far.

Director Venteicher: Any IASB training online are worth watching. Rob & I are going to start meeting with student groups & get updates.

Director Hoeger moved to approve the Consent Agenda.
