CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE: ORGANIZATION AND DISSOLUTION Code No. 906.1

The Board of Directors may from time to time appoint citizens' advisory committees to study matters pertaining to the educational problems of the school district. Such committees shall deal with specific problems identified and recognized by school officials.

Such problems may be recommended for study by staff members or groups, interested lay people, or community organizations generally related to the schools.

The functions of citizens' advisory committees shall be clearly defined at the outset, and shall be considered fulfilled when the committee has made its final report - through the superintendent- to the Board of Directors.
