

Ed-Co Alumni Article
Abel Bockenstedt - Class of 1993
Written by Addy Kirby

Abel Bockenstedt graduated in the class of 1993. He currently resides near Manchester with his wife Sarah and son Miles. Abel is self employed powerwahing hog barns and farming. After high school he poured concrete for Cliff Payne and milked cows for Kevin Heims. School was not his forte, study hall being his favorite. Still, hard work has been Abel's key to success. Abel embodies the viking values of hard work and determination on a daily basis.