Danielle (Hackbarth) Thurn - Class of 2004

Written by Addy Kirby

Danielle Thurn, originally Danielle Hackbarth, pursued her dreams and is now the entrepreneur of Blooms Floral and Gifts in Edgewood, Iowa. Danielle graduated in the tight knit class of 2004. Following high school she went to college attaining degrees in Floral Careers and Landscape, Nursery and Garden Center Management. Danielle currently resides in Edgewood and is married to her high school sweetheart, Adam. They have two children together, Gavin and Cora. When asked what advice she would give to current students she said, "Don't settle.. strive and work for what will make you happy." Danielle was once a Viking, and will always be one.
