

Ed-Co Alumni
Heather Lehman - Class of 2008
Written by Addy Kirby

Heather Lehman graduated in the Class of 2008. Following high school she went to cosmetology school, but is now doing something different than her degree. She is an absent management payroll coordinator. Heather resides outside of Luxemburg, Iowa. When asked why she stayed close to home she said, "All the things I thought I hated back in high school. The small town comfort, everyone knows everyone and all support each other. Honestly, I was told by a friend many years ago to apply and I wasn't ready. Finally when I wanted to start a family and get serious about my life and career, I applied and the rest is history!" Her favorite part about Ed-Co was her small class and getting to know each of her classmates. Advice she would give is, "Don't get discouraged if you go to school for something and realize that you are not as interested in that as much as you thought you would be. Learn from it, grow from it, and keep trying. Find something else and move on! Also, keep in touch with your high school friends, those are always the people you go back to."
