

Ed-Co Alumni

Justin Vorwald - Class of 2003

Written by Addy Kirby

Justin Vorwald graduated from Ed-Co in the class of 2003. After that, he went to college and became an attorney. Justin now resides in Elkader, Iowa. He stayed in the area because he likes small towns and the quality of life here which is harder to find in bigger cities. His favorite part of Ed-Co was knowing all of his classmates and teachers on a personal level. When asked what advice he would give to current high school students he stated, "Be willing to work hard. Make smart decisions. Be rational, not emotional or impulsive." An attorney at law, Justin Vorwald is a Viking for life!