

Ed-Co Alumni

Kely Hemann - Class of 2002

Written by Addy Kirby

Kely Hemann, formerly Kely Preuss, is yet another successful Viking! She graduated in the class of 2002. After high school she went to college at Kirkwood for floriculture. Kely also went to college at Northeast Iowa Community College majoring in accounting. She currently works at Farmers Savings Bank in Customer Service/Compliance. Kely currently resides in Edgewood with her husband, Bruce, and three daughters, Lydia, Claire, and Eden. As she got older she knew she wanted to raise her kids here and stay close to her family. Success flows in the veins of Viking, Kely Hemann!